“Consider”

Consider—pay attention to—think carefully about. Psalm 107 starts by telling us in verse 1 that God's love endures forever. The chapter ends reminding us that we need to consider the great love of the Lord. In between those two verses, the psalmist describes what life is like for mankind. Several times he states that we should give thanks for God's unfailing love.

I am writing this letter to you on my birthday. I want you to know that I know in my heart and life that God is real. I believe what is written in the Bible. I know for a fact that His unfailing love preserves those who trust in Him. I have watched Him provide for me personally and also for this ministry. In a year when fear and hate have reared their ugly heads, I have seen the truth of God's Word bring peace and joy to people.

I have not stopped ministering to people. Explorer Girls has continued all through this past year and at my church we have been meeting in person. I also conducted a Women's Conference weekend where 21 women came in person and 35 came on Zoom. They were blessed by the teaching and the activities that we did. This month, I am taking 27 girls from 3rd through 11th grades on an in person retreat to the camp facility that we attend. I am continuing my Bible studies with women from 4 different churches. One of those studies meets in person, on Zoom, and on the telephone all at once.

The unfailing love of God is here for each of us to claim and put into practice in our lives. He is real. He is alive. He is ready to change your life and fill it with His great love that brings joy and peace. This is my birthday joy—I am honored to represent my Lord to girls and women. Teaching His Word and discipling people to know Him more intimately is my passion. Thank you for helping me to do this!
