

Unmask...”to reveal the true nature of .” If we are to unmask ourselves it means to remove the mask or disguise we have chosen to hide behind and appear in our true character.

For some of us that is frightening. We might not like who we are, or are afraid if people know us for who we are, they may not like us or accept us anymore.

But...as believers in Jesus Christ, we have been given an identity that accepts us for who we are and who we can be as we begin to understand what He has done for us through His life, death, and resurrection!

2 Corinthians 3:18 says, And we all, with unveiled [unmasked] face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord Who is the Spirit.

In this devotional, you will look at some of the identity statements God makes about each of us who have believed in Jesus Christ as our Savior from sin.

You will be asked to:

Meditate: Take time to read the verse in its context and think about what God is saying. Write the verse exactly as it appears in the Bible. Then re-write the verse in your own words.

Ask: What does this verse mean to me personally? Write down how you see this verse applying to you in your present situation. Finish the sentence: “This verse means...”

Surrender: Tell God what you will do because of what this verse means to you. Finish the sentence: “Lord, today I will...”

Know: Commentaries are included to help you understand further what you have read.

Come, and allow God to show you your true identity in Him!!

Day 1

I am the Salt of the Earth

Matthew 5:1-13

Meditate:

1. Write Matthew 5:13 exactly as it is in the Bible.

2. Re-write the verse in your own words.

Ask:

What does this verse mean to me personally?

This verse means... _____

Surrender:

Tell God what you will do because of what this verse means to you. Finish the sentence: “Lord, today I will... _____

Know:

Did you know...

- ◆ There are more than 14,000 uses of salt.
- ◆ The two main uses of salt are as a preservative and as a seasoning.
- ◆ It was a custom in ancient days to rub newborn babies with salt to insure their health.
- ◆ In ancient days salt was extremely scarce, which meant soldiers and workers in the Roman empire were paid part of their wages in salt. This resulted in the saying that a person wasn't worth his salt.

Pray:

Dear Jesus, You are in me and I am in You which means my true identity is that I am salt in this world. Since I know this to be true, Jesus, I ask You to help me _____

Day 2

I am the Light of the World

Know:

Did you know...

- ◆ It’s the fastest thing in our known universe.
- ◆ It travels in a straight path.
- ◆ It does not bend.
- ◆ It is visible and invisible (due to our eye limitations).
- ◆ When it hits something it does one of three things: Bounces off, gets soaked up, or passes through.
- ◆ It can only be seen when it hits something, this is why empty space is dark.

Pray:

Dear Jesus, You are in me and I am in You which means my true identity is that I am the light of this world. Since I know this to be true, Jesus, I ask You to help me _____
